CURRENCY

What currency is used in Bali? The Indonesian Rupiah is the currency of Indonesia. The currency code for Rupiah is IDR, and the currency symbol is Rp. The value of money exchange nowadays is common at Rp 15,000 for $1 USD. Below are some banknotes of IDR you will probably use for transaction:

- Rp 10,000
- Rp 20,000
- Rp 50,000
- Rp 100,000

WHERE TO CHANGE MONEY IN BALI?

It is tempting to exchange money as soon as you leave the airport, but it can also be expensive. We encourage you to exchange at a minimal amount (approx $100 USD) at the airport in Bali, as the exchange rate will generally be much better outside of the airport. Once you're here, we can assist you in getting cash out with your standard ATM card or exchange your local currency into IDR, there are plenty of currency exchange shops on the main streets of Ubud, the bigger the better, smaller shops charge commission where the large shops don't. Alternatively, many restaurants also accept Visa and Mastercard, but it's also important to have some cash for the places that don't. And don't forget to let your bank know that you are traveling overseas!

BALI FOR 1st TIMER

PHONE & SIMCARD

To use your phone in Bali, activate roaming on your phone setting and it will allow you to use google maps to meet up at certain restaurants or any other met up locations. We will set a group chat on WhatsApp, so make sure you downloaded it on your device. If you would like to get a local sim card you can do that in many places in town or even at the airport on arrival, this will cost you approximately $8 USD for around 10GB.

WHEN SHOULD I ARRIVE AND LEAVE BALI?

Check in is at 2:00 PM and on most retreats there will be a welcome ceremony and dinner. We suggest you have a flight that has you arriving in Bali in the morning or before 1pm, this gives you time to get through customs and make your way to Ubud ready for the dinner. For departure, we suggest an afternoon flight as you will check out at 12:00 PM and need to get to the airport, so booking a departure flight anytime after 3:00 PM is recommended. The airport is Ngurah Rai International Airport, it's in Denpasar, Bali.

HOW FAR AWAY IS UBUD FROM THE AIRPORT?

Ubud is approximately 1.5 - 2 hours (depending on traffic) away from the international airport. You will be picked up by one of our drivers and taken to the retreat center, resort or villa.

CAN I ARRIVE AND LEAVE EARLIER?

Yes of course, please let your leader know and we can arrange that for you.

IS THE WATER SAFE TO DRINK?

The tap water in Bali isn't recommended for drinking, so avoid it and stick to sealed bottled water.

If you want to brush your teeth with bottled water, it's possible and provided by the hotel. Ice however is safe and has been for many years now all the restaurants make ice from bottled water, so smoothies and juices are fine with ice, yummy.

BALI FOR 1st TIMER

DO I NEED TO TIP IN BALI?

Tipping in Bali is appreciated but not necessary. Most of the time, the more upmarket restaurants would have already added between 15% and 20% to the bill to cover the 10% government tax and the service charge for staff. You will see it on the bill; if you don't, then by all means, you can tip something small. 20,000 IDR is around $1.20 USD. This is a green note, 50,000 IDR is around $3 USD and is a blue note :)

CAN I HAGGLE (BARGAIN) IN BALI?

Besides boutiques, restaurants, and convenience stores, the first price you're quoted is usually at least double what the seller will let the item go for, so don't be afraid to haggle. Some stall owners will even encourage you to do so by telling you the price they think you should come back with. Haha, it can actually be quite fun! The rule of thumb is if you walk out and they don't chase you, the price you offered is too low. I like to look at it like, how much would I be happy to pay and feel it was a bargain, instead of trying to get them down to the lowest price possible.

WHAT IS THE LANGUAGE SPOKEN IN BALI?

Balinese, but most people speak Bahasa Indonesia. Whilst the vast majority of people in the main tourist areas in Bali will speak enough English to communicate with you, knowing a few phrases in Balinese or Indonesian will go a long way. The locals really appreciate the effort. Start with some easy phrases like selamat pagi (good morning), apa kabar (how are you?), suksma (thanks in Balinese), and terima kasih (thank you in Bahasa). And remember, Balinese is not the same as Bahasa Indonesia the official language of Indonesia.

DON'T FORGET TO PACK

- Light clothing - shorts, skirts, dresses.
- Sunscreen
- Jacket for cooler evenings
- Swimsuit
- Toiletries - tampons/pads etc.

BASIC INDONESIAN SENTENCES (BAHASA INDONESIA)

Just a handful of words to get by while shopping and at restaurants.

- Terima kasih (te-ree-ma ka-seeh) / thank you

There's no favour too small to deserve a 'terima kasih'. Whether a local has helped you with directions or after receiving your goods in a local shop, say this phrase with a smile.

- Suksma (suk - sama) / thank you

It's a local Balinese language for saying thank you. It has the same meaning as terima kasih in Bahasa Indonesia.

- Pagi / good morning

It will be fun to greet local people in their language. Pagi! Good morning! :)

- Ya – Tidak / yes – no

These simple affirmative and negative words can go a long way when responding to anything, be it a generous offer for goods or services or an invitation for drinks.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions. We are here to assist you along the journey in Bali.
